CITY AND COUNTY.

Had a good day.

River rising.

Grass growing fast.

The clouds still hangs low.

Many bad cases of "blues."

Only the goose and duck are made happy by the rains.

The rains have made rubber boots and slickers fashionable.

There is two drops that never fall in Texas—babies and grapes!

WINE OF CARDUI, a Tonic for Women.

The banks and the post-office enjoyed their usual holiday on the 4th.

All parts of the county was well represented in town Saturday.

The man who blows his own horn the loudest has the most wind.

The heavy rains has caused the sand on the hills to emigrate to the low lands.

Our folks who went down to Shreveport on the 4th did not suffer for water!

Take Cascarine for habitual constipation. It is guaranteed to cure. Price 50c. and $1.

"Misery likes company" is what they say now when they go into the saloon wet.

This issue of our paper was delayed two days by repairs being made on the office building.

Thanks to our friend Davis Biggs of the Southern Nursery, for our first mess of nice ripe pears.

Three coaches full of people went from here to Shreveport on the 4th to attend the big celebration.

The sun came out on Saturday, after its long absence, and was hailed with joy by everybody.

There is no disease more prevalent among the fair sex than constipation. Cascarine is the sovereign remedy for this disorder.

How stands the sweet-potato crop? It ought to be fine, and much depends on it this year!

The Fourth was unusually dull here. The rains and absence of so many at Shreveport was the cause.

Jefferson, is now well supplied with splendid tea, and the price low enough to allow everybody to use it.

The rains continue, and farmers are discouraged. The rain of Monday evening was a regular, gully washer.

Sterne & Schuchard are now fully opened with a splendid stock, and have one of the nearest Drug Stores in the State.

Some of our farmers were buying lamps, etc., on Saturday, so as to be ready to fight against the cotton worms.

There has been more spring chickens in market the passed week than ever before in the history of Jefferson.

Our former townman Capt. Geo. M. Oneal, now of Greenville, and doing an extensive mercantile business, was in town Friday.

Quite a number of our most prominent county farmers were in town Friday attending the meeting of Marion county Alliance.

Dyspepsia is one of the most unpleasant diseases. A teaspoonful of Cascarine after each meal will cure the worst cases.

The entertainment for the benefit of Mechanics Fire Company tomorrow evening should be well patronized by our citizens. This old Company has stood through all the ups and downs of Jefferson, and has always been supported by its own members.

Alliance Officers.
The following officers were elected by Marion County Alliance for the ensuing year on the 5th:
M. D. K. Taylor, President; C. J. Simmons, V. P.; W. T. Shackelford, Sec.; N. W. Caple, Treas.; W. P. Fitzgerald, Chap.; R. A. Loomis, Lecturer; L. F. Hartzo, Assistant Lecturer; J. W. Byler, Door-keeper; Seaborn Whately, Assistant Door-keeper; Jno. C. Veal, County Business Agent; M. D. K. Taylor, Delegate to State Alliance.

The days of meeting was changed from Friday to Saturday quarterly.

Grand Entertainment at the Opera House.
The Longview Dramatic Club will give one of their fine performances at the Opera House in this city on Thursday evening, the 11th inst., and a Matinee at 2:30 p. m. same day, for the benefit of Mechanics Fire Company.

This Company is highly spoken of, and it is confidently expected that in such a cause will be greeted with a full house.

Tickets for sale at Park & Connery's drug store.

The uniting of the Taylor and Park Drug Houses, under the firm name and style of Park & Connery, makes one of the most extensive concerns in the State. Everybody knows Dr. O. B. Park, and Mr. Connery, though here but a short time, has made hosts of friends. He is a most excellent and genial young gentleman, and a business man from base. See their card in this issue.

Selling Out at First Cost.
Mrs. SINGER informs the ladies of Jefferson and vicinity that she has determined to sell all her summer hats, bonnets, etc., at cost. Call and secure bargains!
July 3, 1889.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Ballauf are happy over the return of their daughter Emma, who has been at school for two years at Emmetsburg, Md., and their son Fred who has been attending school at New Orleans.

As an evidence that it did rain on the Fourth of July Pleas Stone informed us that one of his neighbors told him that it rained his wagon-body plum full, notwithstanding it leaked like a sieve.

McElree's Wine of Cardui for Weak Nerves.

The Friendly came in about 9 o'clock Sunday night with Capt. Ben Bonham in command, discharged her freight, and left about 2 o'clock Monday morning. She left Shreveport at 8 a. m. Sunday.

Ripinski is not afraid of the rains, chances for cotton worms or anything else, but continues to give unheeded of bargains in every description of Dry Goods, Notions, etc. Go and see him!

According to reports the roads of Marion county were in a very bad condition before the big washing rains commenced. Such being the case, they must be in a d-d of a fix now!

A friend to the farmer, the merchant, the mechanic, the banker, the millionaire and the pauper is Cheatham's Chili Tonic. Never fails to cure. "No cure, no pay." Sold by Park & Connery.

Goes Up Again.
In the District Court on Thursday Judge Pounders overruled the motion for a new trial in the Bob Hines case, and an appeal was taken to the Appellate Court.

If any of our lady readers have not already done so, they should at once avail themselves of the splendid bargains now being offered by Mrs. M. A. Wathen.

Farmers everywhere are kicking about too much rain. They have a right to kick, too; but nevertheless the grass keeps on growing all the same.

McElree's Wine of Cardui for Female Diseases.

Some think that the big rain of the Fourth was the heaviest since the spell commenced, but there has been so many heavy rains it is hard to tell.

TRY OUR CUBAN HAND MADE 5, 10 and 15c. Cigars

NIGHTHART & KITCHEN.
The Commissioners' Court which met on Monday as a Board of Equalization, is still in session. The raise on valuations will probably reach $200,000.

The full, uneasy feeling in the stomach after a too hearty meal will be relieved by a dose of Cascarine.

The muddy water has put a stop to fishing for the present, and it will be a ground-hog case with the fishermen if the rains don't cease soon.

TRY BLACK-DRAUGHT for Dyspepsia.

The Jefferson Steamboat Company has leased the Friendly to the Red River and Coast Line, and made permanent arrangements for cheap freights.

STONEWALL REPLIES.
HARDSHIRE, July 5, '89.
EDITOR JIM:—Your issue of June 26th is before me with "Enquirer's" interrogations in full force and effect; and were it not for the fact that Enquirer is a man of more than ordinary parts, not to say calibre, I would reply simply by saying, "Shoo fly, don't bother me." Will proceed therefore promptly, as doubtless Enquirer regards me as a cyclopaedia run by electricity to answer by number.

1st. In regard to goats, will suppose Enquirer had reference to the two-legged scrub variety like himself. If so, don't consult the moon.

2d, 3rd and 4th. That depends entirely on the color of the child.

5th. Double perceptiveness sensation was produced on the 4th of August, 1886, by us anties in Texas and some half dozen times since; the last time in Pennsylvania, on the 18th of June, just passed, to the tune of 100,000—you say that.

6th. Blue hog, a swivel word, a man becomes hogish, loses his grip like Enquirer; gets blue, and we say a "blue hog."

7th. The fourth dimensions of space is a room 2 by 6 in the State asylum where Enquirer will reside when Judge Moseley decides he is insane.

8th. Suppose Enquirer has in view the leatherwood tree, the kind his mamma used on his nether end; if so, only a few inches.

9th. Nax vomica is antism; 'twill kill a born blind Pro. every pop.

10th. Do you believe the early bird knoweth its own parents? Yes; its mother, but not every time its father, but the bird (child) aint to blame for its misfortune.

11th. In regard to Sam Thurman's goose ranch and the Port Worth Karpooz, well, yes, and with 92,000 in Texas and 100,000 in Pennsylvania you will be safe to bet on Col. Bill Snort for the remainder of Harrison's term.

12th. Finally, in regard to courtship, will say: That depends entirely on the party to be courted. If it be a dusky miss, would suggest the dark of the moon, and the darker the better.

Trusting now that Enquirer is a wiser and a better man, I remain the servant of the people.

M. STEINLINE.
July 2, 1889.

There was a good excuse for so many of our citizens leaving Jefferson to attend the Shreveport celebration on the 4th. We learn from a blossomed-nosed gentleman who was posted that there was not a glass of lager beer to be had for love or money. With the continued rains and this unenviable condition of our saloons it is enough to increase the blues of an ordinary mortal a hundred percent, and cause an emigration to fields more congenial.

DAVID TRICE.
July 9, '89.

We talked with a good many of our former friends on Friday and Saturday, and they all answered us that the chances for a cotton crop was the poorest for years. The continued rains has been disastrous in the extreme. In conversation with such men as Hamp Taggart and Enos Hays they say that they had rather have a dry year than a wet one like this.

"Quinine impairs the hearing, destroys the nerves and injures digestion." Cheatham's Chili Tonic assists digestion, and does not affect the hearing or nerves, and guaranteed to cure.

Sold by Park & Connery.

Hung Jury—Five Years.
The two cases pending in the District Court as we went to press last week, resulted in a mistrial in the Shay Brown case, and a sentence of five years in the penitentiary for Wm. Ellison, in which latter case an appeal was taken.

The merits of Cascarine are proven by its rapidly increasing sales and the popularity it has attained as a liver medicine.

Church Benefit.
The ladies will give a festival, with refreshments, in the basement of the Methodist Church on Friday evening, 12th inst., for the benefit of that Church. A large attendance is expected.

"Lova beckons." Stiek a bottle of Cheatham's Chili Tonic in your pocket and push ahead; success will attend you. Cure guaranteed. Sold by Park & Connery.

Delegates to the Freight Convention.
Messrs. J. H. Bemis, W. H. Mabry, A. H. Schluter and Geo. T. Todd, are in attendance on the State Freight Convention which met at Dallas on Monday.

For the information of our merchants we state that the County Alliance on the 5th inst. instructed their delegate to the State Alliance to oppose the use of jute bagging.
